

Finland is in Northern Europe. It is next to Sweden and Russia. The capitol city is Helskinki. The population of Helskinki is 1,176,976.

The total pop. is 5,266,114. The main languages are finnish and sweedish.

The climate is much like Colorado. Cold winter (23F) and warm summers (70F) .

There are many resources like coal, iron, and gold.

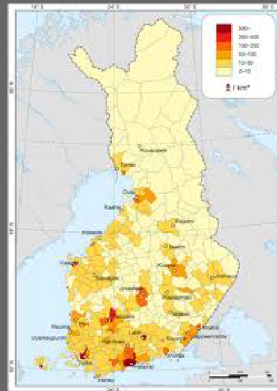

In Finland there is a lot of forests and lakes. There are over 1,000,000 lakes over 5,000km.

The physical environment affects jobs. There are many jobs involving wood. The trade patterns are affected to because there are many obstacles to get through. There are many lakes and forests to get through.

The most common versions of cultural diffusion are language and religion. The language Swedish came from Sweden. Also, religion Christianity came from Israel.

Finland is known as land of a million

Text